BOND CAMPAIGN START

TO BE INFORMAL

But Patriotic Windham is Sure to Subscribe Her $25.00—And Then Some!

There will be no formal opening of the campaign for the Third Liberty Loan drive in this city, today. The work will be in charge of H. S. T. Throp as in the last two years. The allotment for Windham is $25.00, but on both of the former loans, more than this amount was raised, and as it is apparent that this loan offers more inducements, Willimantic will doubtless again go "over the top."

Windham's allotment is $25.00, divided as follows: Willimantic, $24.00; Windham, $10.00; South Windham, $7.00; North Windham, $4.00. So far, Windham people have subscribed to $24,000 worth of bonds.

Committed to Norwich State Hospital. Mrs. Phoebe Naff was committed to Dr. W. E. Crampton of Mansfield, Conn., for insanity, upon order of Judge of Probate Twomey. She was found insane and was taken to the Norwich Hospital Friday.

STRAIN TOO GREAT

Hundreds of Norwich Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden.

The hustle and worry of business men.

The hard work and stooping of workmen.

The woman's household cares.

Often weaken the kidneys.

Rachache, headache, dizziness.

Kidney troubles, urinary troubles—frequently follow.

This Norwich man tells you what to do.

Calvin L. Briggs, carpenter, 37 Penobscot St., says: "I think my work had a great deal to do with my trouble as overfilling seemed to aggravate the pains that were in my back almost constantly. I got so bad that I couldn't lift at all and I could hardly straighten up. Dean's Kidney Pills gave me good relief. I recommend them so that others who may be troubled will know of a good medicine to use."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Briggs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PLAINFIELD

Liberty Loan Campaign Starting With a Boom—Death of Mrs. William Arsenault—Rev. Stephen B. Carter Dies at Norwich—Frank Valley's Case Nolle.

The campaign for the Third Liberty bond is in full swing here. Under the able leadership of S. S. Paine and A. C. Tillinghast a large active committee has been organized and every family will be visited in the interest of the Liberty loan.

St. John's Roman Catholic parish has contributed $150 for Liberty bonds to be donated to churches of the Hartford diocese. Much interest is being manifested here in all campaigns for American victory over German aristocracy.

Captain Daniel Gilbert has resumed as gate keeper at the shipyard.

The residence recently purchased by Charles P. Trumbull, of Hartford, will soon be occupied.

During March the unusually large number of seventeen deaths occurred in the town of Stonington.

Fishing steamer Annie L. Wilcox is nearly ready for governmental inspection.

Mrs. C. Mallory Williams of New York is with relatives in the borough. There is a scarcity of tenements due to the industrial growth of the borough.

Gustave Penke has sold his farm east of the borough, known as Cedar Lake, to Henry Burback.

The Stonington Free Library will reopen next Monday.

New Britain.—The item of business transacted at the annual meeting of the Connecticut district of Turner societies yesterday afternoon in this city most worthy of mention was that calling for an appropriation of $500 to be used in the purchase of Liberty bonds when next issued.

Accused Settled. Frank Valley, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was brought before Judge B. R. Briggs on Thursday. The complaints were made by Charles B. Montgomery, grand juror, who having moved his family to the town of Sterling, ceased to have interest in official rights in Plainfield, therefore did not appear against him. The accused settled the costs and the case was nolle.

Will Organize Ball Team. Young men in the village are organizing a ball team that will represent Plainfield for the coming season. They are practicing each evening on the ball field below the Lawton Mills and by the end of the month a fast aggregation of ball tossers is expected to form a strong team that will make any of the teams in this vicinity humiliate to defeat them.

Charles B. Montgomery has moved to Oneo. He will retain his place as station agent at Packerville for a while, and after his successor is secured, will enter a branch of railroad service.

STONINGTON
